

American Bankers Association Financial Institutions Directory™

The Strategic Solution for Researching Financial Industry Information

This compact executive directory from the American Bankers Association (ABA) is the tool you need to locate detailed financial institution information and stay on top of your business endeavors.

What is the ABA Financial Institutions Directory?

The ABA Financial Institutions Directory gives you all the important contact and financial information you need to stay ahead of the competition right at your fingertips. Published in January and July, the ABA Financial Institutions Directory is an executive leather-bound book that fits on your desk to provide you the quickest access to all the information you need for the rapidly changing financial institution marketplace.

Why do I need the ABA Financial Institutions Directory?

In a conveniently designed layout, the ABA Financial Institutions Directory provides all the information you need in two easy-to-handle volumes. In detailed format, the directory includes:

- > Every head office and branch of all banks and thrifts, plus credit unions with over US$25 million in assets in the United States
- > Balance sheet data, including net income, leverage ratio and risk-based capital ratio
- > Names and functional titles of key officers, plus addresses and phone, fax and routing numbers
- > An alphabetical index with wire transfer address, listing bank's name, head office location, Fedwire number
- > Important ABA information including a Quick Reference Guide to Banking Regulations
- > Lists of the largest banks, savings institutions and credit unions in the United States

What the ABA Financial Institutions Directory can do for you

The detailed directory allows you to remain on top of all the latest mergers, office openings and closings and officer changes at institutions across the country. More importantly, the information allows you to quickly assess the size and profitability of any institution — total assets, deposits, loans and equity. With the precise and accurate data on head office and branch listings for all banks, savings institutions and top credit unions, you can reach officers in key departments such as finance, loans, operations and marketing quickly and accurately.

In addition, head office listings contain financial information, routing codes and key correspondents. For branch locations, main telephone numbers, routing numbers and key contacts are included.

Valuable industry information is yours with the best research tool available
