

The Savings Directory

Keep Track of Every Savings Institution in the United States

The Savings Directory offers the most comprehensive coverage of this influential segment within the financial industry—all in one convenient package.

What is The Savings Directory?

Published twice a year, this directory contains thousands of detailed and easy-to-find listings for all institutions chartered as savings and loans and savings banks in the United States. Each listing includes general data for the head offices and branch locations, conveniently formatted in alphabetical order by state, city and by the institution's legal title.

Why do I need The Savings Directory?

Whether you need to research potential partners or pinpoint prospects for a marketing program, The Savings Directory can help, offering many benefits that you cannot find anywhere else, including:

- > Ownership details for each head office
- > Key financial data such as total assets, total mortgage loans, total equity and net income
- > Summaries of mergers, closures and name changes that have taken place over the prior three years

What The Savings Directory can do for you

Each listing provides essential information unmatched by any other directory on the market. Get the most up-to-date mailing addresses, telephone and fax numbers, national statistics, ABA routing numbers, clearinghouse data, Fedwire status and correspondent bank information for every organization listed. In addition, a comprehensive listing of senior officers' names and titles for various functional areas such as finance, loans, operations and secondary marketing is included.

If understanding the savings industry is important to you, you need the latest edition of The Savings Directory
